Dear Mr. Casey:

A recent column in the Wall Street Journal referred to your speech of May 1 at the Metropolitan Club of New York City.

Therein you commented on the 46 historic indicators of power consolidation by various totalitarian regimes and of the 33 such which have been accomplished by the current regime in Nicaragua.

It would be of great value to our national security if more widespread understanding of this threat were obtained.

My colleagues and I would be very interested in reading more details on this subject than were printed in that very short article.

We would greatly appreciate receiving a copy of that speech in full, which you had given, if it is available.

With kind regards,

Casimir G. Oksas
Chairman
